TODAY'S GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST JOHN (John 6:24-35)

IT IS MY FATHER WHO GIVES YOU THE BREAD FROM HEAVEN;
I AM THE BREAD OF LIFE

When the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into boats and crossed to Capernaum to look for Jesus. When they found him on the other side, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered: 'I tell you most solemnly, you are not looking for me because you have seen the signs but because you had all the bread you wanted to eat. Do not work for food that cannot last, but work for food that endures to eternal life, the kind of food the Son of Man is offering you, for on him the Father, God himself, has set his seal.' Then they said to him, 'What must we do if we are to do the works that God wants?' Jesus gave them this answer, 'This is working for God: you must believe in the one he has sent.' So they said, 'What sign will you give to show us that we should believe in you? What work will you do? Our fathers had manna to eat in the desert; as scripture says: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.' Jesus answered: 'I tell you most solemnly, it was not Moses who gave you bread from heaven, it is my Father who gives you the bread from heaven, the true bread; for the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' 'Sir,' they said 'give us that bread always.' Jesus answered: 'I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst.'

THE GOSPEL OF THE LORD!
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

BEQUEST/WILL TO OUR PARISH

Think about it: Making a “Will or Bequest” to our Holy Spirit Parish of City Beach can be enormously satisfying. It provides a rare opportunity to review your life and to look at your most cherished relationships. The Catholic Church has been present at most of the important milestones in your life: your Baptism, your First Communion, at times of great celebration and at times of great sadness. The work of the many ministries of the Catholic Church is every day far-reaching, life-giving, and life-saving. By leaving a gift to your church in your Will, you will leave a legacy of faith – a legacy to help ensure that the mission and pastoral outreach that has been important to you will continue both for today’s needs and for those of our children, our grandchildren and beyond. Thank you!

MASS READINGS

18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading (Exodus 16:2-4,12-15)

The Lord sends manna from heaven

The whole community of the sons of Israel began to complain against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness and said to them, ‘Why did we not die at the Lord’s hand in the land of Egypt, when we were able to sit down to pans of meat and could eat bread to our heart’s content! As it is, you have brought us to this wilderness to starve this whole company to death!’ Then the Lord said to Moses, ‘Now I will rain down bread for you from the heavens. Each day the people are to go out and gather the day’s portion; I propose to test them in this way to see whether they will follow my law or not. ‘I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel. Say this to them, “Between the two evenings you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have bread to your heart’s content. Then you will learn that I, the Lord, am your God.”’ And so it came about: quails flew up in the evening, and they covered the camp; in the morning there was a coating of dew all round the camp. When the coating of dew lifted, there on the surface of the desert was a thing delicate, powdery, as fine as hoarfrost on the ground. When they saw this, the sons of Israel said to one another, ‘What is that?’ not knowing what it was. ‘That,’ said Moses to them, ‘is the bread the Lord gives you to eat.’

THE WORD OF THE LORD.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial-Psalm (Ps 77(78):3-4,23-25,54)

Response: The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

- 1) The things we have heard and understood, the things our fathers have told us, these we will not hide from their children but will tell them to the next generation: R/
- 2) The glories of the Lord and his might and the marvellous deeds he has done, Yet he commanded the clouds above and opened the gates of heaven. He rained down manna for their food, and gave them bread from heaven. R/
- 3) Mere men ate the bread of angels. He sent them abundance of food; So he brought them to his holy land, to the mountain which his right hand had won. R/

2nd Reading (Ephesians 4:17,20-24)

Put aside your old self and put on the new

I want to urge you in the name of the Lord, not to go on living the aimless kind of life that pagans live. Now that is hardly the way you have learnt from Christ, unless you failed to hear him properly when you were taught what the truth is in Jesus. You must give up your old way of life; you must put aside your old self, which gets corrupted by following illusory desires. Your mind must be renewed by a spiritual revolution so that you can put on the new self that has been created in God’s way, in the goodness and holiness of the truth.

THE WORD OF THE LORD.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel-Acclamation (Matthew 4:4)

Alleluia, alleluia! No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God. Alleluia!

Gospel (John 6:24-35) Go to the Front

PARISH PRIESTS' SUNDAY

Today, we celebrate “Parish Priests Sunday.” St John Mary Vianney whose feast we celebrate on every 4th August is the Patron Saint of all Parish Priests. It is a welcome wish that the Sunday closer to the feast of St John Mary Vianney be called “Parish Priests Sunday.” This is surely a praiseworthy way to honor the patron of all parish priests. As the feast of this great Saint (St John Mary Vianney, the patron Saint of all Parish Priests) falls on Sunday the 4th August, Sunday Solemnity supersedes. The ones who are most often not sufficiently recognised and honoured are the “uncanonised saints” whom we call “Parish Priests.” These spiritual shepherds of ours have been somehow taken for granted most of the time. Many parishioners know very little about their own parish priests and their assistants (i.e., about their responsibilities, the sacrifices they make in the fulfillment of their pastoral duties, their aspirations and needs). We believe that, as members of their flock, we should know more about them, and do more for them. If we have special days devoted to special people, why should we not devote a day (a Sunday) to honor and fete with our parish priests and show them our gratitude? They surely deserve, and even need it. Our parish priests like all human beings need to be acknowledged, affirmed, encouraged and, most of all, need to feel that they are loved. In view of all these, we call the first Sunday of August the “Parish Priests’ Sunday,” - the day we remember them in a special way, pray for them and show them our love, appreciation and gratitude. It is a beautiful and long overdue way of showing our appreciation and love for the shepherds of our souls. Many thanks and blessings, +Fr.Emmanuel-tv
